

Skills Sharing: Schools Additional Resources

What	Details	Where to go
Surrey
Action for Carers	Action for Carers have a schools and colleges advice page.	Schools and colleges Action for Carers
APPEER	Appeer teens have helped us to develop and deliver multisensory immersive workshops to school staff during Inset Day training sessions. The aim of these workshops is to enable school staff to understand how autistic girls can experience school life and to suggest valuable strategies which could be used to alleviate these challenges.	Appeer
Ambitious About Autism	Enter 'schools' in the search function on the Ambition About Autism's website to see their projects specifically linked to schools.	New partnership launched to create national schools' mental health programme Ambitious about Autism

BRAAIN (Be Ready ADHD ASD Information network)	A network, advice and support for parents and carers of ND children in Surrey out to Hampshire borders. Support both pre and post any diagnosis. Autism in schools project (initially rolled out in Hampshire)	https://www.braain.co.uk/events Autism in Schools
Caleidoscope	Autism training for professionals	Professionals Caleidoscope - Autism Support
Family Learning, adult learning courses	The Family learning team can work with your school to deliver sessions (email rebecca.richens@surreycc.gov.uk for more information).	Family learning adult learning courses - Surrey County Council
Mindworks	Details of Mindworks work within schools.	School Support :: Mindworks Surrey
National Autistic Society	Offer a range of support services for parents and families of children with Autism such as:	NAS Surrey Branch Services and Support For Adults and Their Families

	Helpline, Courses, NAS Surrey Family Support Service and Support Groups.
Partnership for Inclusion of Neurodiversity in Schools (PINS)	Information about the Surrey's PINS project	Partnership for Inclusion of Neurodiversity in Schools (PINS) - Surrey County Council
SEND Advice Surrey	Information and guidance for professionals and families.	Support linked to schools
Surrey Child & Family Health	Occupational Therapy resources and advice.	» Occupational Therapy (OT)
Surrey Youth Focus Inclusion Confident Communities.	Four short Surrey Youth Focus recordings introducing the 'Social Model of Disability', behaviour as communication & creating an inclusive culture together *Includes Amy Hart talking about her work on the Surrey PINs project in schools	Inclusion Confident Communities recordings
Surrey Youth Focus Inclusion Shining Stars	Four short videos highlighting local organisations work with children with ND needs.	Inclusion Shining Stars
Surrey ND Padlet	ND advice for parents and carers	Surrey Padlet - ND advice for Parents/Carers
Surrey Local Offer: Parents and carers	The Local Offer has information about the range of services available to children and young people in Surrey with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND).	Local Offer parents and carers - Surrey County Council
Surrey Child and Family Health useful links	New single point of access telephone details. Key website links.	Surrey Child & Family Health Useful Links

		Full website - surreychildandfamily.co.uk
Surrey Young Carers	Support for young people who help care for someone who has an illness, a disability, or is affected by mental ill-health or alcohol/substance misuse. Support children from Year 1 upwards.	Surrey Young Carers
National
Anna Freud, Mentally Healthy Schools	Mentally Healthy Schools is a free website for UK primary and secondary schools and further education settings, offering school staff information, advice and practical resources to better understand and promote pupils' mental health and wellbeing.	About : Mentally Healthy Schools
The British Psychological Society	Neurodiversity Affirmative Education	Neurodiversity-affirmative education: why and how? BPS
National Autistic Society	A free tool for mainstream primary teachers to introduce neurodiversity concepts to classes of pupils aged 8-11 years	Teaching neurodiversity to primary school pupils

Sibs	Sibs is the only UK charity for children and adults who are growing up with or have grown up with a disabled brother or sister. We provide information, support and training on sibling issues for adult siblings, young siblings, parents and professionals.	Your feelings - Sibs
-------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------